

Faculty Information

Through enrollment and faculty management, eCore provides statewide quality online courses. Faculty are a critical part of eCore’s consistent success. The Faculty Information section provides an overview of data, activities, and results related to course instruction and curriculum. The Curriculum and Instruction Department manages and supports eCore faculty and oversees course design and development. The information in this section should inform the reader of current processes that are set in place to ensure quality in eCore instruction, as well as some facts about our instructors.
